

Everyday Rococo: Madame de Pompadour and the Arts
The Wallace Collection
1-2 July 2022

Speakers and papers:

Rosalind Savill

“Madame de Pompadour’s Sèvres Porcelain for Everyday Use”

Alexandre Gady
Sorbonne Université

Parisian townhouses

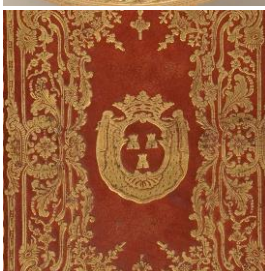

Alden Gordon
Trinity College, Hartford, CT.

“The Language of Gifts: Madame de Pompadour’s Hierarchy of Giving and Receiving”

Mia Jackson
Waddesdon Manor

“Pampered and adored: Madame de Pompadour’s pets”

Rachel Jacobs
Waddesdon Manor

Madame de Pompadour’s library

Joana Mylek

Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich

“Madame de Pompadour’s collection of Meissen porcelain”

Bertrand Rondot

Château de Versailles

Furniture

Aileen Ribeiro

Courtauld Institute of Art

“Fashion à la Pompadour”

Kristel Smentek

Massachusetts Institute of Technology

“Asia at Home: Mme de Pompadour's Mounted Chinese Porcelain”

Susan Wager

University of New Hampshire

“Pompadour sculpsit: Engraved Gems, Etchings, and the Author Function”

John Whitehead

“The crisis of 1745 – new thoughts on Madame de Pompadour, the Orry brothers and the Vincennes porcelain factory”

Full programme and timings to be confirmed soon.

Fees for the symposium

Attending: Fees include coffee and tea each day

Members 35 years old and under	£60
Members	£80
Non-members	£100

On Zoom £40

Dinner

Dinner for members	£85
Dinner for non-members	£100

For more information please visit:

<https://www.thefrenchporcelainsociety.com/news/fps-symposium-dinner-everyday-rococo-madame-de-pompadour-arts/>